GENERAL INFORMATION

The Danceathon is strictly a not-for-profit party run for the pleasure and benefit of our friends in the dance community. No vendors or commercial sponsors are permitted.

Facility: The Deutscher Club has a stage for the band, a large wood dance floor, tables and chairs, all covered by a 170x60 foot pavilion with roll down plastic sides. And, a large tree-shaded outdoor picnic area with lots of tables. If it rains, this party doesn't stop!

We provide: Over eight hours of top class Cajun, Zydeco, and Rockabilly music for your dancing and listening pleasure, picnic tables, snacks, water, soft drinks, burgers and hot dogs at the grill all included with your admission. Beer and wine are available for purchase. No outside beer, wine or other alcoholic beverages may be brought into the premises.

You bring: Yourself, some prepared food to feed 4-5 people for the potluck meal (no watermelons please). We have plenty of seating at the picnic tables under the pavilion or outdoors in the biergarten. Feel free to bring a friend or two.

Smoking: The party is smoke free. Smoking is permitted in the parking lot.

Pets: Sorry they are not permitted. Please leave them at home.

Volunteers Needed: Want to help, reduce or eliminate your admission donation?

Please contact our Volunteer Coordinator, How Carson at 215-780-1993.

Or visit <http://danceathon.arnb.org/volunteers.php> for additional volunteer details or email How at hcarson@paserver.net.

No food or drink is permitted on the dance floor.

Right of admission reserved.

Parking: Park in the Deutscher Club's parking lot. Please, no street parking.

RVs and trailers: We are allowed to overnight park up to six RVs, Camper Vans, or Trailers in the club's parking lot on Friday and Saturday night. There is no water, no dumping, no bathrooms after the club closes, and likely no electric. Purchase space at arnb.org/cart.

Make It A Weekend

Sunday, July 25, 2010, consider attending the 14th Annual Bayou Festival at Duke Island Park, Old York Road, Bridgewater, NJ. Featuring:

The VooDudes, 5:30-6:30pm & Lil' Malcolm & The House Rockers, 7:00-8:30pm

The Bayou Festival is free. Cajun/Creole food is available for purchase. If you arrive early there's plenty of open space for a picnic. There's a large, grassy dance area in front of the stage, and this event attracts many dancers who sit near the 'house right' side of the stage to enjoy an impromptu potluck picnic. It's about a 40 minute drive from Clark, NJ.
